RE: NOTICE OF EX PARTE COMMUNICATION
Docket No. 06-229

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On March 29, 2011, Oleg Fishel, North American Marketing Manager for Aeroflex, Thomas Bezas, Vice President of Government Relations & Trade for Aeroflex, and Jill Wyman, Manager of Legislative Affairs for Aeroflex, participated in a conference call with Pat Amodio, Chief RF Engineer at the FCC - Emergency Response Interoperability Center (ERIC), Michael Ha and Walter Johnson, of the FCC Office of Engineering and Technology, and Ziad Sleem, of the FCC Office of Wireless Telecommunications Bureau, to discuss Aeroflex's response to the fourth NPRM as it pertains to infrastructure testing.

Some of the topics of discussion included: Overview of Aeroflex proposed infrastructure equipment testing process; Overview of commercial infrastructure test procedures; Test process compliance enforcement; and, Difference in testing infrastructure in a centralized network versus a network of networks.

The conference call concluded with discussion on upcoming deadlines and possible dates of roll out of testing.

Please do not hesitate to call should you have any questions regarding this matter.

Sincerely,

Thomas A. Bezas
Vice President, Government Relations & Trade
